

Lights on Main

2008 Award Winners

city-works

TRANSFORMING NEW ORLEANS

Best of Show

French Quarter Suites Hotel

Most Original Theme

Central City Renaissance Alliance building with multiple decorations

Most Creative Display

Saturn Screenprinting window display theme including mannequin

Most Creative Display

Zeitgeist and Saturn Screenprinting illuminated all three stories of their building.

Best Overall Participation

Oak Street Main Street

Oretha Castle Haley Boulevard

Café Reconcile

North Rampart Street

The lights at Armstrong Park were illuminated for the first time since Hurricane Katrina in association with this Lights on Main Pride Project.

North Rampart Street

Street Scene showing participation in the Pride Project

North Rampart Street

North Rampart Street

St. Marks Methodist Church. The children associated with this church were on hand for the first distribution of lights and were extremely excited to be able to participate in putting the lights on the trees downstairs.

North Rampart Street

French Quarter Suites Hotel and adjacent buildings lit for the holidays

St. Claude Avenue

Colton School light for the holidays

St. Claude Avenue

Top floor of Kajuns' Pub illuminated

Oak Street

Lights all the way down Oak

Oak Street

Squeal Bar-B-Que

Oak Street

Doggie Day Care facility

Oak Street

Street scene